

Unreasonable.

We still go after the one.

GOLD CREEK CHURCH

“What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine and go after the one who is lost until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing. And when he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them,

‘REJOICE WITH ME.’”

LUKE 15:4-6

GOD'S MATH DOESN'T ADD UP.

Every major milestone in Gold Creek's history came down to one thing: stepping out in faith when it didn't look reasonable on paper.

God has always met us there. Today thousands call Gold Creek home, yet our region is still full of people who need the relentless, extravagant grace of Jesus.

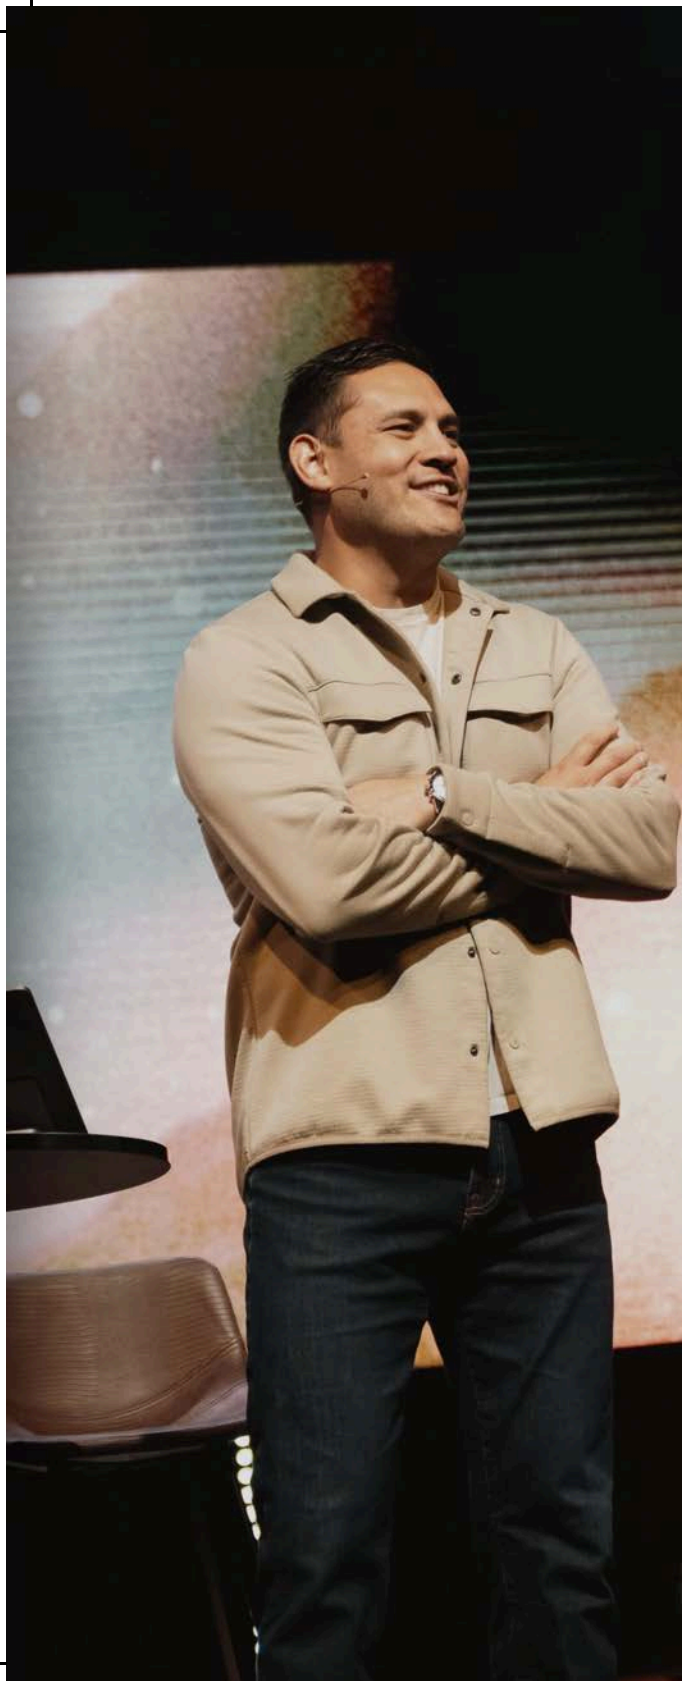

Our buildings have served us well. Now aging infrastructure and outgrown spaces are becoming barriers to our future.

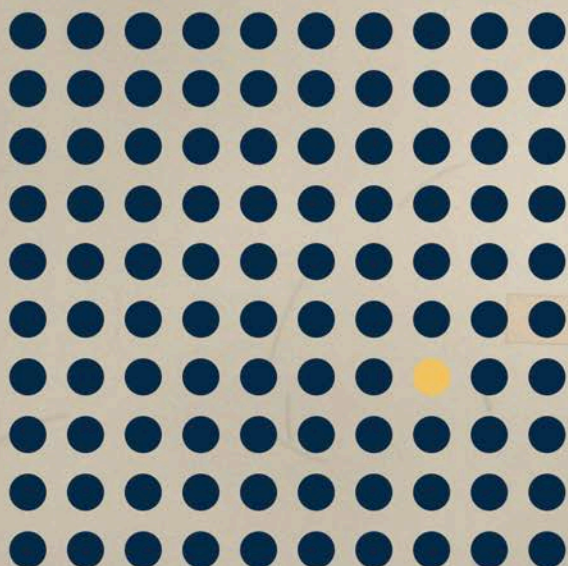

So we're making room for the next family, the next teenager, and the next one who walks through our doors.

We're trusting God to do what only He can do as we step into this next chapter together.

A story still unfolding

Thirty years of people, faith, and possibility.

Gold Creek did not grow because it was safe on paper.

It grew because ordinary people kept saying yes when the math looked wrong.

THERE IS ALWAYS A ONE

A name you know.

An empty seat.

Someone who stopped showing up and nobody went looking.

Culture will keep talking.
Buildings will keep aging.

The only question that matters is whether we still go after the one.

UNREASONABLE GRACE

It has never added up. It filled our church with people who weren't supposed to be in the same room. We see it in our lobby every Sunday.

The room that shouldn't work.

THE NEXT ONE

DARIUS

“We called ourselves Christmas and Easter Christians. First ones in, first ones out.”

I treated faith like a transaction. I only came to God when I needed something. Then life kept getting worse: money, health, all of it. My prayers stopped working, and I got angry with God. My wife kept dragging me back to church. One Sunday something broke open in me, and I got baptized with my family. Now I serve here with my son. Prayer isn't an obligation anymore. It's a joy.

DARIUS · SERVES WITH HIS SON

“My son started asking me questions about faith I didn't know how to answer.”

When my son wanted to know God, I asked friends for help, and they pointed me to Gold Creek. I was nervous walking in, but everyone was so kind. He loved it, so I promised him: as long as you want to go, I'll go with you. I did Alpha, got baptized, and learned to pray and worship. Now I just decide to follow Him every day. There's joy in my life, a community to serve, and a Christian home for my kids.

SANDRA · ALPHA & BAPTISM

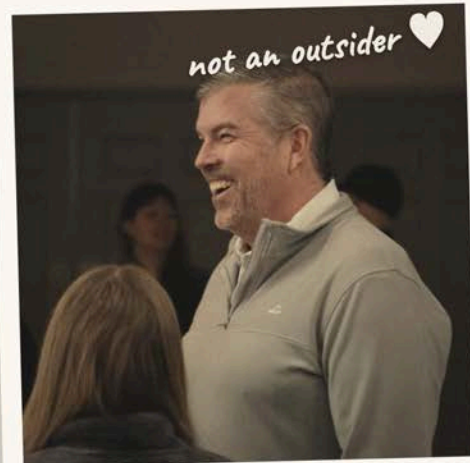

Sandra

“I could play the role for a while. Inside, I didn’t feel like I belonged.”

I felt alone and unworthy. I pulled away from my family and used alcohol to cope. My therapist suggested I explore faith, so I found Gold Creek and started watching online. Then I signed up for Alpha, met some good people, and started coming on Sundays. For the first time I didn’t feel like an outsider. When I got baptized, the loneliness finally lost its grip. I found a home.

“...I questioned if God was real.”

Severe depression had a hold on me. God felt distant, and I questioned if He even existed. Then a painful illness kept me in the ICU for a long time, and somewhere in there I realized God still had a purpose for my life. I turned to Him. I came to Gold Creek for community and found it in Young Adults. I don’t just believe anymore. I follow. And the depression doesn’t own me now.

UNREASONABLE PURPOSE

Because everyone matters, we are taking three big steps as a church — reintroduce ourselves to the community, create a vibrant lobby experience and excellent worship center.

What we're building

We are updating and modernizing our space to reintroduce Gold Creek to the changing community and to provide excellent spaces for people to encounter God.

In our lobby, we envision a vibrant, bright, and modern space where families come in, are welcomed, and find their people here at Gold Creek. We see a worship center, redesigned into a modern and bright setting, where people can take a first step toward a relationship with Jesus Christ, and grow and transform every week.

02 REACHING MONROE

A new home for a young church.

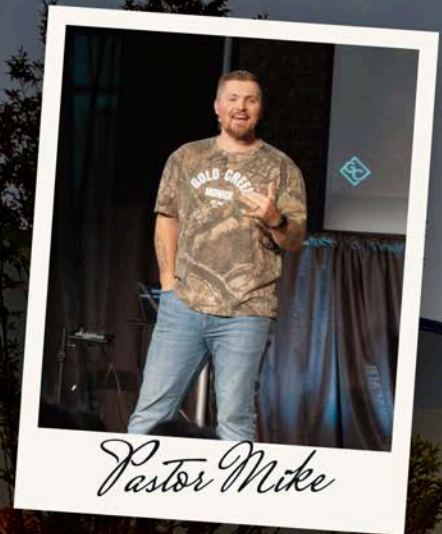

Every milestone in Gold Creek Monroe's short history, from launching the church to adding services to stepping into a building, came from stepping out in faith when it didn't seem reasonable on paper.

Today hundreds of people call Monroe home, and our community is still full of people who need the hope and purpose found in Jesus.

Now we make room: for the next family, the next teenager, and the next one who walks through our doors.

Stewarding a move of God in the next generation

God is on the move in the lives of kids and students. Not just in the future, but right now. We want to make sure we're ready to steward it.

Not a full renovation. A fresh, intentional investment in the rooms where our students worship and gather, so every kid who walks in knows: you belong here on purpose.

The one who is twelve today.

The one who stopped showing up.

The one who walks in for the first time because someone made space before they arrived.

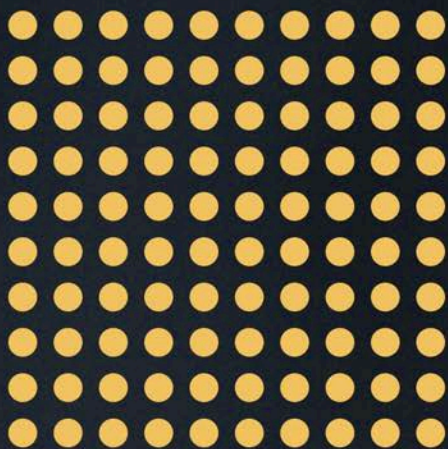

Unreasonable love doesn't wait until they're grown. It goes after them now.

UNREASONABLE GENEROSITY

NOT EQUAL GIFTS. EQUAL COURAGE.

100 OF 100 · EVERYONE IN

The goal of this initiative is not just financial. It is 100% participation.

To come together and take a step of faith.

Before money, search your heart. Pray for your kids. Your family. The people near you who do not know Jesus yet.

Then the money.

The Unreasonable Initiative is a two-year commitment, over and above your regular giving, to move Gold Creek forward and better position us for the future.

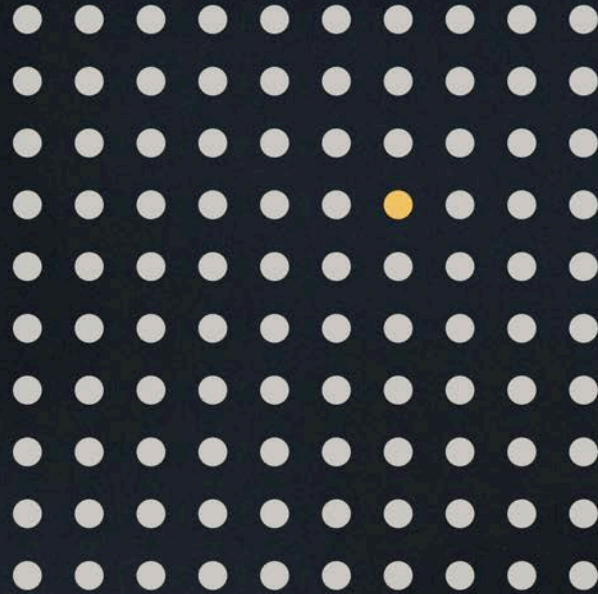

Somebody made room for you when you got here.
It cost them more than made sense.

What does unreasonable look like for us?

- 01 PRAY
Ask God what “the one” means in your house.
- 02 LISTEN
Notice who you’ve stopped going after.
- 03 MOVE
Shape a two-year commitment at the kitchen table.
- 04 TRUST
Take the step together with your church.

How might God be inviting you to participate?

“Rejoice with me; I have found my lost sheep.”
