Unreasonable

Gold Creek started in a living room in 1993. Reach the people nearest us and furthest from Jesus. We got that math from God.

It has never added up. It filled this place with people who were never supposed to be in the same room, in one of the least churched corners of the country. Look at our lobby on a Sunday.

The Pacific Northwest keeps growing. We are updating our campus to keep reaching the one.

How do I get involved?

Unreasonable is a two-year financial commitment. We invite you to pray about what step of faith God is calling you to take, look at your resources through the lens of what He can do, and give sacrificially to help make this vision a reality.

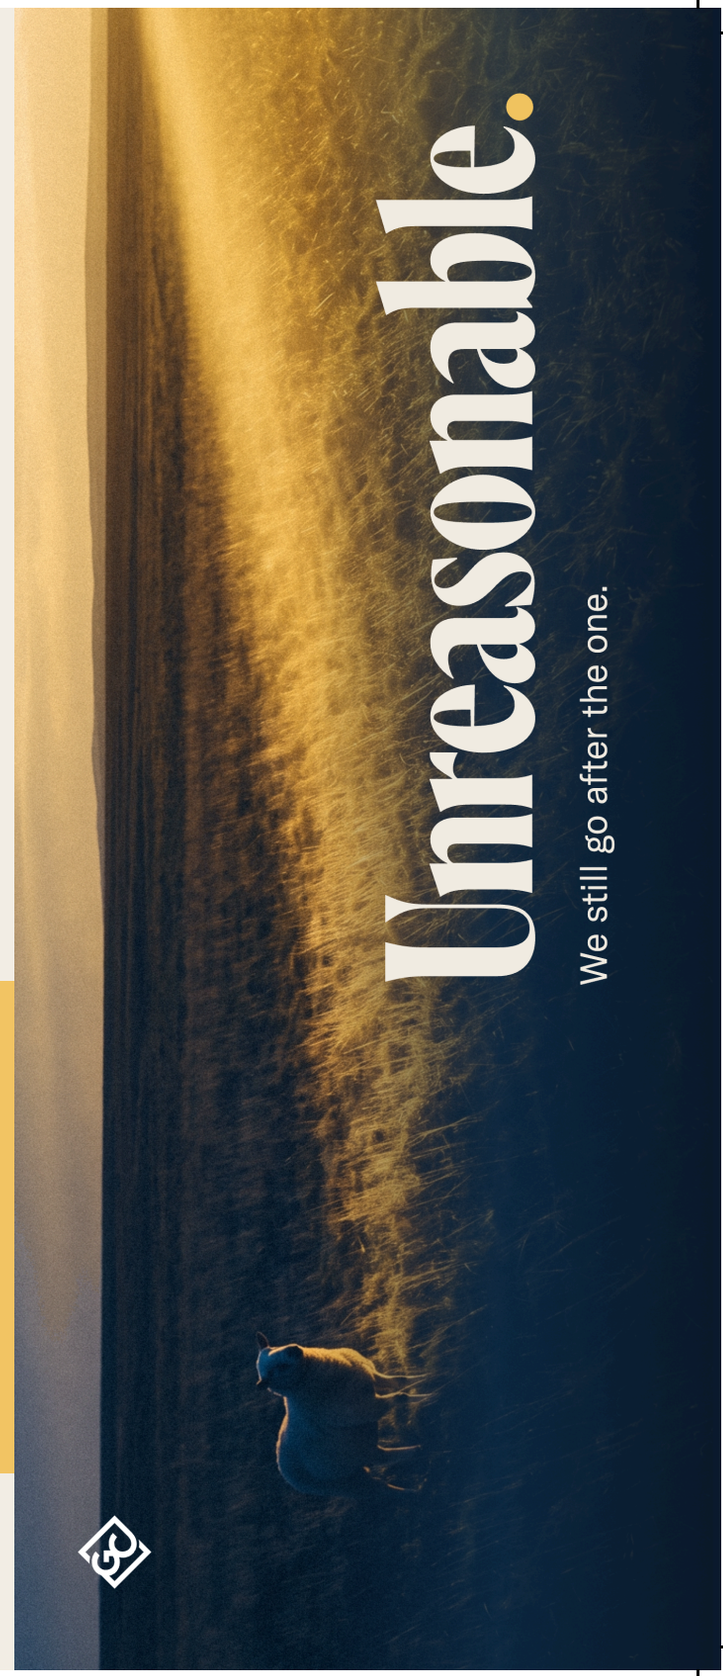

We believe there is nothing more powerful than a healthy church engaging a hurting culture.

"What man among you, if he has a hundred sheep and has lost one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine and go after the one who is lost until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it on his shoulders, rejoicing."

— Luke 15:4-5

God's Math Doesn't Add Up

When we look back at Gold Creek's history, every major milestone came down to one thing: stepping out in faith when it didn't seem "reasonable" on paper.

God has always met us there. Today, thousands call Gold Creek home, but our region is still full of people who need the relentless, extravagant grace of Jesus. Our physical spaces have served us well, but aging infrastructure and outgrown environments are becoming barriers to our future.

We're modernizing our facilities to make room for the next family, the next teenager, and the next "one" who walks through our doors. We're trusting God to do what only He can do as we step into this next chapter together.
