5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Bible Cookies Lesson 6

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: NUTTER BUTTERS- YOU NEED A FIRM FOUNDATION

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

These cookies have a soft peanut butter filling inside two crunchy cookies. But imagine if it was the other way around - a cookie inside two layers of gooey peanut butter - what a mess! These cookies need a firm foundation for that soft center. Whenever you eat one of these cookies, remember the story of a foolish man who built his house on a soft foundation. The parable of the two builders shows us we need to build our lives on the firm foundation of Jesus. Matthew 7:24-27, Parable of the Wise and Foolish Builders

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Do you remember when and why you made Jesus your Savior? Share your story with the kids - or ask them to tell you why Jesus wants to be your firm foundation.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- What did the foolish builder do wrong when he built his house?
- What is the solid foundation we need in our lives?
- How can we receive Jesus as our Savior?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"Commit yourself to instruction; listen carefully to words of knowledge." Proverbs 23:12

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know:

The greatest decision anyone can make is to make Jesus their firm foundation. If your child is ready to make that commitment, pray for them and support them. Encourage them to share that decision with a pastor at church. And pray that they will always rely on Jesus to be their Rock.
