MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

Wild West Faith Lesson 2

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: IN CAHOOTS

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

In the Old West, two bad guys might team up or be “in cahoots” together. When Jacob wanted his father’s blessings, he teamed up with his mother to trick the blessing out of Isaac. Jacob’s trickery ended up tearing his family apart and forcing Jacob to run away to save his life. Genesis 27:1-35, 41-45, Jacob Gets Isaac’s Blessing

HANGING OUT:

Make this week’s lesson real:

Ask your kids when they are most tempted to be dishonest. Is it to get out of trouble? To get ahead? What is it that makes you want to deceive someone else? Why are even so-called harmless white lies a bad thing?

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Why did Jacob and Rebekah deceive Isaac?
- How did Jacob and Rebekah’s actions tear their family apart?
- Why is it important to always tell the truth?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week’s memory verse:

“The grass withers and the flowers fade, but the word of our God stands forever.”

Isaiah 40:8

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know: Lying is second nature to almost everyone. We do it without even thinking about it. Yet God commands us to be honest, even when it is costly. Honesty preserves our good reputations, and it keeps relationships strong. Encourage your kids to always be honest, and make it safe for them to be truthful with you, even when they have messed up.
