5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With your Kids

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: ON YOUR OWN

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home:

Even with all of the preaching that Jesus did and the miracles that he performed, Jesus always made time to get away from the crowds and spend time with God. In studying the Bible, it is important that we carve out quiet time to be with God and let him speak to us.

Luke 5:12-16, Jesus Heals & Luke 6:12-16, Jesus Chooses the Twelve

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Do you make time to be alone with God? Share with your kids when and where you spend time with God so you can grow your own faith.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- Why did Jesus go away by himself to pray?
- Why is it important to have quiet time alone with God?
- Do you have a plan, a time and place, to start having quiet time with God?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"After sending them home, he went up into the hills by himself to pray.
Night fell while he was there alone." Matthew 14:23

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know: Encourage your kids to pick the time and place where they can meet one on one with God daily. Encourage them to stick to the plan, but don't push them or make them feel bad if they miss it. Make it a positive experience. Honor that quiet time. Pray that God will use that time to build their faith.
