MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With Your Kids

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: THREE AMIGOS

IN THE CAR:

On the drive home, ask your child what he learned about this week's lesson: Today we learned about Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who stood together against King Nebuchadnezzar and survived the fiery furnace. God gave us friends because he knows we are stronger together, and he does not want us to go it alone.

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real:

Look for an opportunity to do something together with the kids this week, whether it's yard work, a building project, or helping them clean their room. Let them help, and let them see how, together, you were able to do more than if you (or they) had done the work alone.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- How do you think you would have responded to Nebuchadnezzar's order to bow to the idol?
- Do you think it was easier for Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego to stand up to Nebuchadnezzar because they had each other?
- What are some things we can do as a church to serve God that we couldn't do alone?

AT BEDTIME:

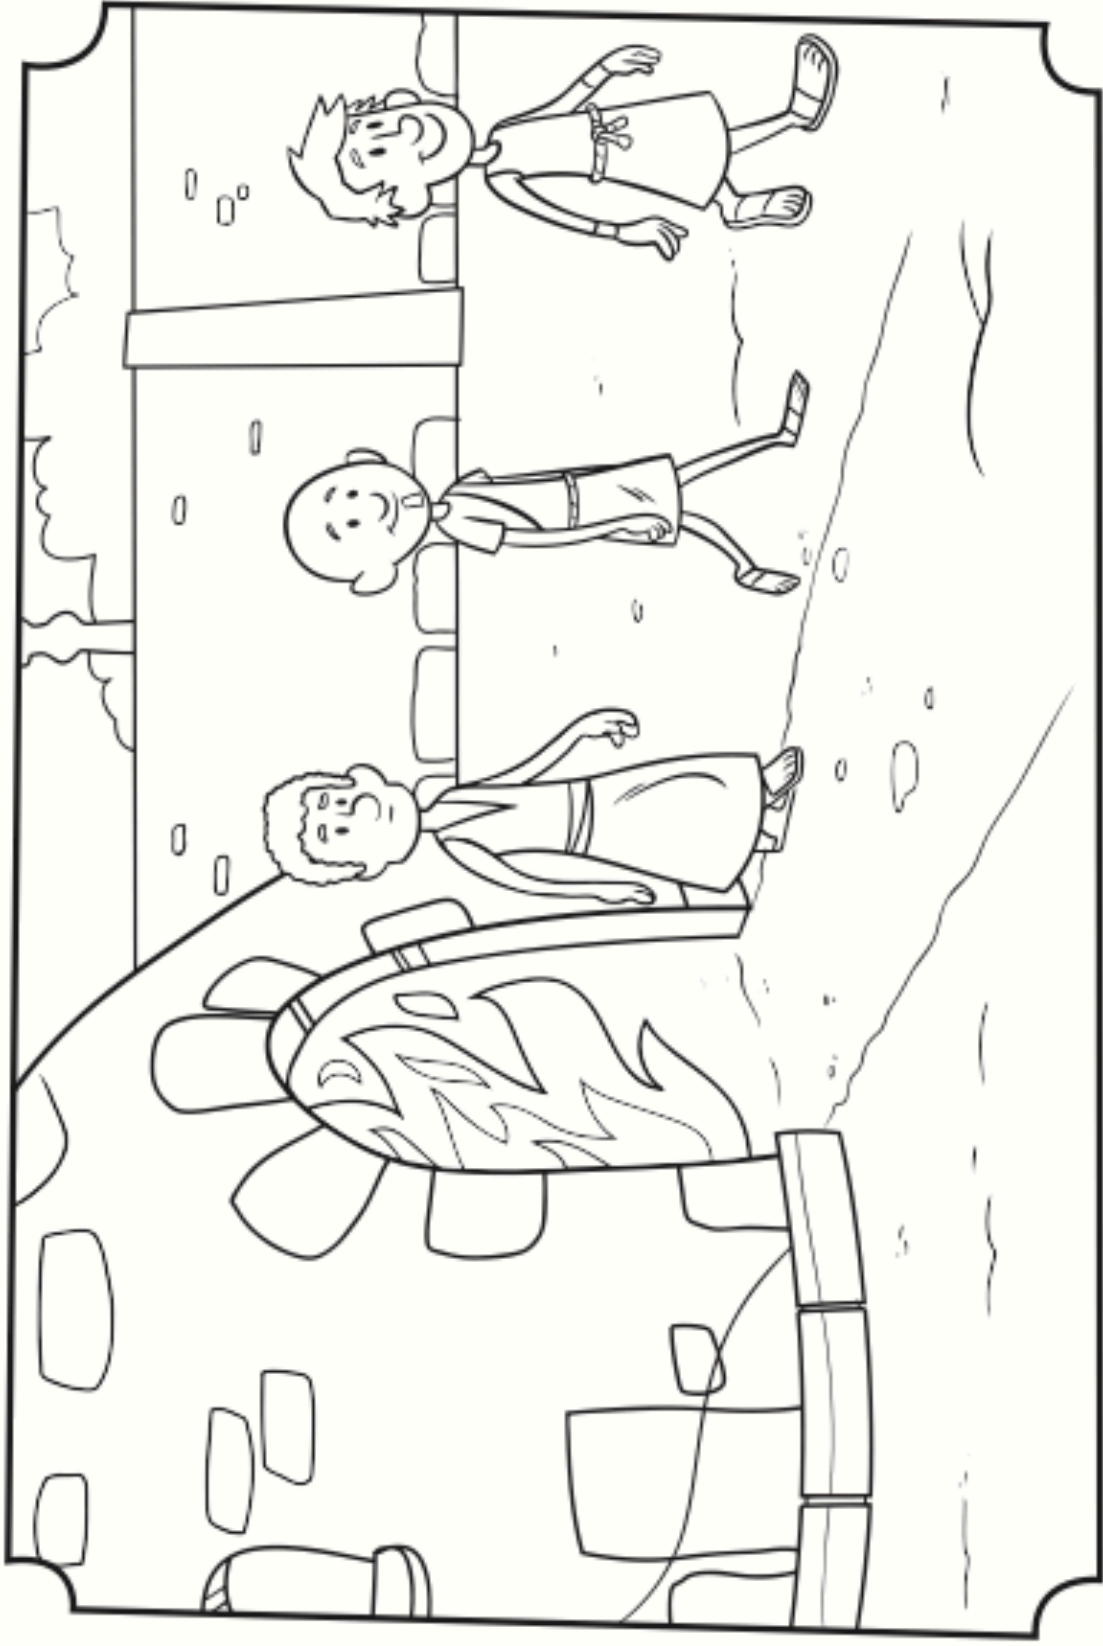

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

"As iron sharpens iron, so a friend sharpens a friend." Proverbs 27:17

PARENT TIME:

Has God blessed you with good Christian friends? Take a moment to thank God for those friendships. If he hasn't, ask God to send some your way. We were not meant to go it alone in our faith. We all need friends, and together, we can find the strength to face any challenge.

“As iron sharpens iron, so a friend sharpens a friend.”
