MAKE IT STICK

5 Simple Ways You Can Make This Lesson Stick With Your Kids

THIS WEEK'S LESSON: MOVING ON AFTER MESSING UP

IN THE CAR:

Ask your child what they learned about this week on the drive home: Most people are afraid of failure. But we can bounce back from problems—even problems that we created—when we remember that Jesus loves us, no matter what. His love is a bright light of courage shining into our darkest fears. John 18:15-18, 25-27; and 21:15-17; Peter denies Jesus and is restored to ministry.

HANGING OUT:

Make this week's lesson real: Next time there's a spill or a mess up in the house, pause for a moment with your kids. Remember that Jesus forgives our mess-ups. Thanks Jesus for his forgiveness. Then work together to fix the mess.

AT DINNER:

Here are some great discussion starters:

- What did Peter do that made him ashamed?
- What did Jesus do when he saw Peter after he rose from the grave?
- Can Jesus forgive all of our mess-ups?

AT BEDTIME:

Quiz your child on this week's memory verse:

“[Jesus] said, ‘I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.’” John 8:12b

PARENT TIME:

What you need to know: Parents can go a long way to showing their kids how forgiving God is. Pray that God will give you a spirit of loving forgiveness. Discipline when necessary, and teach your kids they have a responsibility to set things right, but always, always forgive.
